Stewards Corner

Hello again, welcome to this months edition of the stewards corner. A lot of things are happening in the world and here as well. We are set to open up a little more as things in the world open up more we will now be opening on Tuesday's 3-11 and opening the kitchen as well for bar service. The menu will basically consist of sandwiches and such with a minor special or two. Hopefully this will work out for us and you as well, as we start to expand business. However we are experiencing some minor difficulties. Those difficulties are directly related to staffing. It is problematic trying to find help these days, as on top of unemployment compensation the federal government is still paying $300.00 to those folks encouraging them to not want to work. This intern has also created a huge work load on the staff we currently have. Therefore I implore you to be patient, kind, and polite as we do the best we can to serve you.

As Always
Hope to see you soon
Larry E. Myers

Auxiliary News

To Our Brothers, Sisters, Members & Guests of W.Y. VFW Post 8951

April showers bring May flowers. Again thanks to everyone for their support and help in March. On April 11th we had 41 boxes that were sent to the troops. Thanks for all your support and donations. On March 28th we honored the Vietnam Veterans. There were at least 8 Veterans that attended. Thanks for your service.

Congratulations to Pat Mcleary who won the spring basket. We raised over $800.00 for postage to mail packages to the troops.

On April 21st we judged the scholarships for the High School Graduates and the continuing Education students. The Post gave $1000.00 scholarship to Haley Smith for the High School Graduate and the Auxiliary gave two $500.00 Scholarships to Teagan Cobb and Trinity Nelson for the Continuing Education.

Bingo was a big success and we thank each and everyone who came out, also I want to thank all volunteers for their help and support. Just a reminder we will have Bingo on May 11th and May 25th.

The Auxiliary will be having a special program on Sunday May 30th 2021.

Please notify Jeanne Hoffman at 717-848-6828 if you had any changes in address since you became a member of the Post, this will help us keep our records up to date and get your new membership cards to you.
