VFWRG

The idea of not wearing a helmet while riding a motorcycle is one of those things that really makes me scratch my head, which I'm thankful to still have. I don't know if there's an argument you could present in favor of convincing me to not wear a helmet while riding. Now I will say that I am not innocent, in my younger years I rode a lot without a helmet until I saw what happens when you don't. Some may argue that personal liberty and the right for an individual to run their own life, as long as it does not direct harm to others, can be read in our founding documents. While this may be a good point, it falls into the "just because you can, doesn't mean you should" category for me personally. Like, you can eat a Carolina ghost pepper or stick your head in an alligators mouth—go ahead, the internet will thank you. But why would you? I don't need a scientist to tell me who wins when your naked head hits a wall or the pavement at 60 mph. By the same token I am a firm believer in live and let live—so, touché! Be safe, be smart and may God bless!

Stewards Corner

Hi There, September has arrived with the start of school, and Labor Day. I've always been confused about the celebration of Labor Day. Are we celebrating the American labor movement (ask Jimmy Hoffa how that worked out). Maybe we are celebrating fruits of our own labor. It could be we're celebrating all the laboring that happens brought on by all the heat and humidity because of the warmer weather or even celebrating all the women that have gone or are going through labor. It really doesn't matter I guess as long as we all are celebrating. There is a perfect place to go where people are always celebrating. Good people, good food and beverage, and good prices equal a celebration all the time.

This month we have a great menu planned for you and we have great prices to accompany those specials. Miller Lane will once again be here on the 9th 8 to 11. Bingo is on the 12th & 26th. Mondays & Tuesdays we have our $4.95 specials. Respect your wallet and treat it to our prices.

As Always
Hope to see you soon
