We need Veterans to attend monthly meetings. It's time that 9 or 10 veterans get more help in deciding what needs to be done at this Post. The Veterans that have been in charge have been here to long, and I'm one of them. Voices need to be heard and those voices are yours. Meetings are held once a month and they are on the third Tuesday. Please help and come to a meeting that usually lasts for both Post and home about one hour. We need more Veterans to get involved. Please put the dates on your calendars.

VETERANS PLEASE

Get Involved, without involvement from you this Post will DISAPPEAR.

So please get involved!

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

VFWRG MEETING

Meeting will be April 25th at 7:00 PM.

The weather has been in favor of us motorcycle riding folks, and with that comes a few things I feel need addressed. Yes, we know they're dangerous, we are well aware of that. We can control what we're doing, but we have no control over what you do. If you see us doing something a little wonky, there is more or less a reason behind it. We're constantly looking ahead with great distance to plan for any and all situations that could result in us needing to find an escape route. Riding isn't just fun, it is mentally taxing. We need to be 100% aware at all times; a slip up on our end can result in death. Negligence on your end can do just as much to us as our own screw-ups. You might get a boo-boo and a dented car at worst and living with yourself knowing your choice caused someone to not make it home. Mmkay? If you are sitting at a stop sign with flowing traffic, please double, triple, heck quadruple check that no motorcycles are coming your way. "Look twice save a life" isn't some catchy trend, in fact it's a big deal. We don't ride with our high beams on just to be jerks; we're increasing our chances of you seeing us. We may even wiggle back and forth in our lane so you can see us better. Saying "sorry I didn't see him/her is not an excuse. Keep your eyes open, put your phones down and pay attention! I will continue with my rant next month so until then, play hard, love even harder. God Bless!

From the Commander:

Greetings members,

Welcome to April. Hopefully we all enjoy the shenanigans on day 1.

Congratulations are in order for our Riders Group and everyone that came out to support them, they raised over $2100.00 so far for the Children's Miracle Network.

Keep an eye out on the monitors for more entertainment coming to the Post.

The Post had it's first round of nominations for Post Officers last month. April 16th will be the second round of nominations followed by voting. So if you're an Active Member, you are invited to come to the meeting at 7:00PM and help us make some changes that will make the Post a better place. If you have any ideas, come let us hear them. All to often we hear what we should be doing upstairs at the bar. The decisions are made downstairs at the meetings. Here's to seeing some new faces and hearing some great ideas at our next meeting.

Thank you for your Support.
